** This rate applies to all ROW (Rest of the World) countries except the countries mentioned above, EU countries, and Brazil, New Zealand. You can find these rates in your account from 2024 onwards.

Volumetric weight.

Volumetric weight is the volume that a package occupies during transport. The rate for a global shipment (a shipment outside Europe) is calculated as follows: Base rate + number of kilograms* x (price per kilogram + energy surcharge per kilogram). This approach is implemented to charge shipments that take up more space and/or weight during transportation more than smaller and/or lighter shipments.

**Number of kilograms: We consider the actual weight and the volumetric weight. The price is based on the higher of the two. Volumetric weight is calculated based on the volume (dm3)/7.5.*

Example: If you send a package to Hong Kong weighing 500 grams in a small package, you would pay the base rate of € 19.50 + € 5.50 per kilogram + € 1.20 energy surcharge per kilogram = € 26.20

When choosing DHL as your carrier for shipments within the Netherlands, you can choose between DHL For You and DHL Europlus. The difference is simple:

DHL For You (consumer delivery).

Are you shipping to a consumer? Then choose DHL For You. Your shipment will then be delivered to the street address from Monday to Saturday. As a rule, DHL will make one delivery attempt. It is also possible to send the shipment to a DHL delivery location.

DHL Europlus (company delivery).

Are you shipping to a business customer? Then choose DHL Europlus. Your shipment will then be delivered to the specified (business) address from Monday to Friday, during office hours. As a rule, DHL will make two delivery attempts. It is not possible to have a shipment delivered to a DHL drop-off location through DHL Europlus. When creating a DHL Europlus shipment, you are required to enter a business address.

	DHL For You	DHL Europlus
Delivery to	Consumers	Companies
Delivery days	Monday to Saturday	Monday to Friday, within office hours (Saturday optional)
Delivery point	At home or at a DHL location	At a business address
Delivery attempts	As a rule, one delivery attempt will be made. A possible second delivery attempt can be scheduled at the recipient's request.	Standard two delivery attempts.

Explanation of sizes:

S	< 10 dm <sup>3</sup> and < 5 kg
M	10 - 24 dm <sup>3</sup> and < 10 kg
L	24 - 60 dm <sup>3</sup> and < 15 kg
XL	60 - 240 dm <sup>3</sup> and < 23 kg
XXL	240 - 432 dm <sup>3</sup> and < 31,5 kg

How do you calculate the volume of a parcel in cubic decimeters (dm<sup>3</sup>)?

Step 1. Measure the length, width and height of your parcel in cm.

Step 2. Calculate the number of dm by dividing the number of cm by 10.

Step 3. Multiply the sizes together to calculate the dm<sup>3</sup>.

Example:

Length: 50 cm

Width: 30 cm

Height: 20 cm

5 x 3 x 2 = 30 dm<sup>3</sup>.

Rates package within the EU.

With UPS you can create shipments within and outside the EU (excluding the Benelux). Within the EU your packages will be delivered by UPS Standard (1 to 7 working days). In the shipping options you can choose UPS Express Saver for faster delivery. Your package will then be delivered within 1 working day. Shipping outside the EU is standard via the fast UPS Express Saver network.

UPS: SHIPMENTS TO FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

Rates package within and outside the EU.

The rate for a shipment with UPS is determined based on various characteristics of the shipment. When creating a shipment in the back office, after entering the shipping details, the UPS rate for the shipment is displayed. The price for a shipment with UPS is based on:

- Weight
- Size
- Postal code
- Business or private
- Parcel type (e.g., Standard or Express)

Weight calculation.

The rate for both UPS Standard and UPS Express Saver is partly determined by the weight of your shipment. UPS makes a distinction between the actual weight of the shipment and the volumetric weight. If the actual weight is higher than the volumetric weight, the actual weight applies to determine the rate. If the volumetric weight is higher, then this weight is used to calculate the rate.

You calculate the volumetric weight as follows:

1. Measure the length, width, and height of your parcel in cm.
2. Multiply the dimensions together and divide the result by 5.000.

Example calculation:

Dimensions: 40 x 30 x 60 cm = 72,000

Volumetric weight: 72,000 / 5,000 = 14.4

Good to know.

- Parcels are delivered as standard from Monday to Saturday. Are you sending to a business address? In that case, parcels are delivered as standard from Monday to Friday. However, you can choose the Saturday delivery option free of charge.
- The following shipping options are included by default:
  - Saturday delivery
  - Insured up to € 520,- (The goods excluded from the service are not covered by the insurance. You can find these in the general terms and conditions of DPD, section 5.2.)
- The displayed rates are excluding VAT and surcharges.
- DPD makes two standard delivery attempts for home addresses. After that, the parcel is taken to a DPD Pickup Point. If the parcel is not picked up within a certain number of days, it will be returned.
- DPD makes three standard delivery attempts for business addresses, with two consecutive delivery attempts. This means that the second attempt can take place at a different time or the next day. If the parcel cannot be delivered on the second attempt, it is taken to a DPD Pickup Point where it waits for further instructions for about five days. The sender will be contacted, and an alternative delivery day will be arranged. If this is not possible, the parcel will be returned.
- Delivery to a DPD Pickup Point is possible with the 'Delivery to Pickup Point' delivery option. The shipment will be delivered at extra competitive rates from Monday to Saturday to the nearest DPD Pickup Point near the recipient. The recipient can then pick up the parcel at their convenience. If the parcel is not picked up, it will be returned.
- The Collection Service is included by default in DPD shipments to home or business addresses. If you send less than 300 parcels per month, the Collection Service cannot be scheduled within a specific time frame. If you send more than 300 parcels per month, DPD will provide a one-hour time slot for the pickup of the parcels. More information about the Collection Service can be found here.

With MyContracts, you can activate your own shipping contract with DHL, PostNL, and DPD, and process shipments for Shipping via Bol orders. MyContracts has different levels depending on how intensively you want to use it. Each level includes a fixed number of included shipping labels. This means that you do not incur additional costs for the included shipping labels, apart from the fixed subscription fee. When using MyContracts, the billing for shipments is handled directly through the carrier. Therefore, you pay for the shipping labels from your carrier according to the pricing agreements you have made with them.

If you create more shipping labels than the included amount, you will incur additional costs for each extra shipping label. The amount of these costs depends on the level you subscribe to. Check out the different levels below and try MyContracts for free for 14 days.
